

KURRENT KOMMENT'

GATHERED TOGETHER FOR FUTURE CAREFUL CONSIDERATION.

Opinions on to the Results of the Recent Tidal Wave and Cyclonic Disturbances—"What Will the Heaven Be?"

Hon. Thomas H. Payne's Postoffice address is Hot Springs, Ark. No charge for this tip.

Treasurer Hale has given out the statement that there is a little the rise of $1,350,000 in the State Treasury. We had hoped for an early adjournment of the Legislature.

The Democracy is just now in the awkward position of a party which, having solemnly declared Protection unconstitutional, is yet too cowardly to come out frankly in favor of Free-trade.

Friends of Mr. Cleveland predict that the new Cabinet will be a brainy one, and there is one fine old gentleman out in Indiana who earnestly hopes that it may contain a plentiful allowance of Gray matter.

Nobody knows as yet whether it is Mr. Biele's or some other person's comet that is soaring up and down the sky. Unless the celestial wanderer proves its identity pretty soon it may be taken in under the vagrancy laws.

General Master Workman Powderly thinks the People's Party will carry the election in 1896. Mr. Powderly doesn't seem to have heard of the sad and fatal mishap that befel the People's Party on the 8th of the present month.

Before there is any more talk about Roswell P. Flower for Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Flower should hasten to prove that he is not the Flower who warned the Chicago Convention that Mr. Cleveland could not carry the state of New York.

Tammany will send 3,000 braves to Washington to honor Inauguration Day with their presence. This news will be about as welcome to Mr. Cleveland as would be the announcement that any organized body of 3,000 office seekers were coming.

In Connecticut a soldiers' monument is draped with flags in honor of Democratic victory, and in Indiana the graves of Union soldiers are desecrated by men celebrating the same event. Democratic enthusiasm is vigorous and possibly a trifle indiscreet.

Senator Peffer of Kansas announces that the third party members of Congress will co-operate in both Houses with the Democrats in wiping out the Tariff laws. The third party delegation is just about large enough to serve as a fantastic tail for the Democratic kite.

Both of the MacNeaugh-Wayne of New York and Franklin of Chicago—are mentioned as available men for the new Cabinet. The difference, however, between being mentioned for an office and being boosted into it is too great to be measured by any known appliances.

Senators Carlisle, Gorman, Gray, Palmer and Vest are all spoken of as possible members of the new Cabinet, but the name of Senator David Bennett Hill doesn't appear in any list of available men. Mr. Hill is not only a Democrat according to his own assertion, but a very lonesome one at that.

Young Mr. Howell of Georgia is going to hold an extra session of Congress no matter whether Mr. Cleveland and other fellows like it or not. It is only to be hoped that young Mr. Howell will hold it and not let it get away from him. Otherwise he might have to advertise for it among the "lost" notices.

Three weeks ago all good Cleveland Democrats spoke of the Tammany chief as the Hon. Richard Croker; since the election they call him plain Mr. Croker, and the chances are that by the 4th of March they will be speaking of him as Dick Croker. Mr. Croker can hardly fail to notice the drift.

It was a big and shiny and rare, And pounced upon our Eagle bird— Good Lord! the feathers flew!

He failed our "ambition" out of sight—

You couldn't find a piece Quite big enough to hold a gun.

Thanksgiving found us in this fix, Like many "other sinners,"

No toothsome bird on which to whet An appetite for dinner.

Now, don't you think the Demmies ought

To make amends for this?

Share with Repub. at least a mile.

But all this comes to those who wait,

Or on the Master call.

Or those who number on their list

Such friends as James H. Hall.

KENTUCKY PROTECTIONISTS.

OUR LEGISLATURE WANTS TO DRIVE OUT CANADA THISTLE.

THE LEGISLATURE HAS PASSED AN IMPORTANT BILL to farmers, to prevent the growth and ripening of Canada thistle. The bill provides that it shall be the duty of every person or persons, and of every corporation holding land in the Commonwealth, either by lease or otherwise, to which Canada thistle may be growing, to cut the same so as to prevent such weeds from ripening.

FOR failure to comply with the act a fine is imposed, recoverable before any Justice of the Peace, by indictment in the Circuit Courts of the state.

WHEN any person or corporation owning land which said thistle is growing neglects or refuses to cut or destroy the same, any person or persons aggrieved is authorized, after five days' notice, to enter upon the lands and cut down said thistles, and may recover from the owners of the lands compensation at the rate of $1 per day.

THANKSGIVING Day all the Ministers of sister churches and many of their members assembled in the new building to offer up thanksgiving and praise to the Giver of all good.

Services had just begun, when, without a premonition of danger, the alarm of fire was given.

Fortunately the large audience fled out into the street without personal injury.

But for several hours there was a heroic struggle between the firemen and the flames, the former finally gaining mastery.

After the smoke had cleared away it was found that the handsome building was dedicated. This, however, was fully covered by insurance.

THE CARPETS, the furniture and other belongings, placed there by the self-sacrificing efforts of the Ladies' Mite Society, were badly damaged also—some of the articles beyond the hope of repair. On these there was no insurance. The loss is quite heavy, and it falls with crushing effect upon the hearts of the devoted women who labored so long and so lovingly in the work of furnishing the Church.

THE LEDGER proposes to assist the ladies in the restoration of the property which was their pride; and to this end it invites contributions from every generous citizen.

All contributions left at or sent to this office will be acknowledged promptly, and the money will be turned over to the Treasurer of the Ladies' Mite Society.

Don't be afraid of giving too much; any sum will be appropriate to a good cause.

Don't be afraid of giving too little; many small sums make a handsome aggregate.

The LEADER keeps the list and wants to see it grow.

M. E. CHURCH BURNED

THREE HUNDRED NEW EDIFICE TAKES FIRE DURING SERVICE.

DEPOTS BURNING THE COMBINE—The Building and Furnishings Considerably Damaged By Fire and Water.

Fire in the M. E. Church.

The new edifice considerably damaged by the twin elements, fire and water.

Such a brief, in a story of Thanksgiving morning.

UNION Thanksgiving services were to have been held in the new M. E. Church, South, yesterday morning, and the congregations of the various churches had gathered together to witness the consecration of the new edifice.

Long before the service began, a fire had broken out in the building, and completely filled the building. Rev. Dr. John S. Price, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, was to have delivered the sermon. The services had been begun by the reading of the Thanksgiving proclamation of the President and the singing of one hymn.

Several noticed that something seemed to be wrong, and finally a few who were near saw smoke curling up through the registers leading from the furnace. A hurried examination was made by the sexton which developed the fact that the floor was on fire underneath. The fact was communicated from one person to another until the whole congregation was aware that the building was burning.

ALL RUSH TO THEIR FEET AND BEGIN PREPARATIONS TO LEAVE. Several gentlemen in different parts of the room made themselves conspicuous by their gallant efforts towards reassuring the ladies and children. All of the means of exit were thrown open and in a few minutes every person had left the room, which was now thoroughly filled with smoke. There was not the least confusion, nor the slightest indication of a panic, but few visible signs of excitement or fright. The good sense of all prevailed. Accidents would doubtless have been serious, as so often happen when people become uncontrollable through fear and excitement.

THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE WASHINGTON FIRE COMPANY ARE BUT A SHORT DISTANCE AWAY, AND THE FIREMEN WERE ON THE SCENE EVEN BEFORE THE CONGREGATION HAD LEFT THE BUILDING. THE OTHER COMPANIES QUICKLY RESPONDED ALSO. HOSE WAS QUICKLY ATTACHED TO THE NEIGHBORING PLUGS AND HAD IT NOT BEEN THAT THE FIRE WAS CONCEALED FROM VIEW AND DIFFICULT TO LOCATE, THE DAMAGE WOULD HAVE BEEN SLIGHT. IT WAS THOUGHT THAT THE BLAZE MUST BE COMPARETIVELY INSIGNIFICANT, AND IT WAS NOT WANTED TO INJURE ANYTHING WITH WATER IF IT COULD POSSIBLY BE PREVENTED.

IT MAY HAVE BEEN THAT SOME OF THE MEMBERS HAD BEEN OVERZEALOUS IN THEIR EFFORTS TO PROTECT THE PROPERTY, AND SOZEARLON IN THE RUSHES OF SMOKE, AND IMMENSE VOLUMES ROLLED THROUGH EVERY WINDOW. IT WAS A SAD SIGHT TO THE CROWD WHICH FILLED THE STREETS OUTSIDE, A GREAT MANY OF WHOM WERE MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH. IT WAS SOON EVIDENT THAT THE ENTIRE BUILDING WAS DOOMED UNLESS PROMPT MEASURES WERE TAKEN. THE FIREMEN CUT HOLES HERE AND THERE IN THE FLOOR, AND AS SOON AS THE FLAMES COULD BE REACHED SEVERAL FEET DEEP, THEY WERE QUICKLY DRAINED UPON THEM AND THEY WERE QUICKLY SMOKED OUT.

THE FIRE ORIGINATED FROM SOME DEFECT IN THE FURNACE PIPE. TEN MINUTES BEFORE IT BECAME APPARENT SOME OF THE MEMBERS WERE IN THE BASEMENT AND EVERYTHING SEEMED ALL RIGHT. NO CAREFUL ESTIMATE HAS AS YET BEEN MADE, BUT IT IS NOT THOUGHT THAT THE DAMAGE WILL EXCEED $3,000 ON BOTH THE BUILDING AND FURNISHINGS. THE BUILDING WAS INSURED FOR $5,000; $2,500 WITH DULEY & BALDWIN AND $2,500 WITH BOULDEN & PARKER. ON THE FURNISHINGS THERE IS NO INSURANCE. THE ELEGANT CARPET ON THE MAIN FLOOR IS ALMOST A TOTAL RUIN, BEING SOILED AND THOROUGHLY SOAKED WITH WATER. THE PIANO AND OTHER FURNITURE ALSO CONSIDERABLY DAMAGED. THE BEAUTIFUL FURNACE WAS AT FIRST THOUGHT TO HAVE ESCAPED INJURY, BUT ON CLOSER EXAMINATION WAS FOUND TO BE RATHER BADLY SMOKED.

THE CHURCH WAS ONLY COMPLETED DURING THE PAST SUMMER AND WAS DEDICATED ON SUNDAY, THE 6TH INST., JUST A LITTLE OVER TWO WEEKS AGO. IT WAS PROBABLY THE HANDIEST BUILDING OF ITS KIND, ALL THINGS TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION, IN NORTHEASTERN KENTUCKY. IT WAS THE PRIDE OF THE CONGREGATION AND AN OBJECT OF ADMIRATION OF ALL THE PEOPLE IN THE CITY.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT REPAIRS WILL BE BEGUN AT ONCE.

Double Thanksgiving.

IT IS OFTEN THAT GOOD THINGS COME IN COUPLES, BUT ONE OF MAYFIELD'S MOST REPUTED HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES YESTERDAY WAS THE FIRST TIME SINCE 1865, AND FOR PERHAPS THE THIRD DURING HIS LONG LIFE, THE ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH FELL ON THANKSGIVING DAY. DR. A. H. WALL WAS BORN NOVEMBER 24TH, 1810, AND YESTERDAY WAS HIS 82D ANNIVERSARY. IT WAS APPROPRIATELY OBSERVED AT HIS HOMESPURGE ON WEST FRONT STREET, WHERE THERE WAS A HAPPY GATHERING AND REPEATED EXPRESSIONS FOR THE CONTINUED GOOD HEALTH OF THE DOCTOR.

REV. W. S. SPEARS OF WASHINGTON WILL PREACH AT THE CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SUNDAY MORNING. THERE WILL BE A CONGREGATIONAL MEETING IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE SERVICE. ALSO SUNDAY SCHOOL AT 9:30 A. M. AND CHILDS' ENDLESSAVER AT 6 P. M. EVERYONE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND, THE MEMBERS ESPECIALLY, AS MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE ARE TO BE DISCUSSED.

A Word to Republicans.

The hope of the party lies in the expansion of a stalwart Republican press. The Republicans are strong, others are weak, but hope to support. Democratic power is the salvation of one's own party newspaper is untrue to the Republican cause.

Unanimously subscribed to by the National Republican League.

J. S. CLARKSON, President.

A. B. HUMPHREY, Secretary.

SOME of our Free-trade brethren are exulting unduly over the fact that wages are being increased in certain branches of the Rhode Island cotton spinning industry. These sordid individuals forget that the increase was planned before the election and is being made under the operation of the McKinley law.

WITH the prospect before it of a Treasury deficiency brought about by the unprecedent appropriations of the Democratic Fifty-second House, the Democratic party feels about as happy as a man who cracks a safe thinking it filled with gold, and who finds upon opening it the job that the money isn't there. It is partisanship, disappointment and not solicitude for public affairs that fills the heart of the Democracy as it surveys the Treasury.

THE history of the United States for the past thirty-two years is the history of the Republican party. When the Republicans took charge of the National Government a third of the country had been brought to the verge of ruin by the practical application of the Democratic dogmas of Free-trade, cheap labor and cheap money. The Federal Government had no credit abroad and no strength at home. The Treasury was bankrupt, the finances disorganized, the flag disdained by slavery and menaced by treason. The country, abounding in all the resources of wealth, was impoverished and dependent upon European capitalists for its manufactured products.

Besides the tremendous task of suppressing the mightiest rebellion of history, the Republican party found itself confronted with the necessity of reconstructing the financial and industrial interests of the Nation. All the world knows how successfully the work was accomplished. A material advancement that is without precedent in human annals, a nationality so compact that nothing can shatter it, financial credit that the proud monarchs of the Old World cannot surpass, a prestige abroad that commands the profound respect of foreign governments, an superb Navy, a sound currency, a new system of commercial alliance with the richest Nation of Latin America—these are some of the results of Republican rule. Never before have the masses of the people been so prosperous, nor have the wages been so high or the necessities of life so low in price as they are to-day.

Cleveland's administration, be it remembered, was powerless to reverse Republican legislation or to check the tide of National progress and prosperity. Republicanism, firmly entrenched in the Senate, was able to bid defiance to Democratic schemes and to protect American industries from the assaults of Southern Bourbons and Northern Free-traders.

The Republican party will not change its beliefs. It will not retreat from its advocacy of high wages for labor, honest currency, liberal pensions to veterans and fair elections in every state in the Union. It will continue to demand the maintenance of American honor and the protection of American rights in every part of the world. And it will take charge of the government of the country and proceed once more to carry forward the work of developing its resources and increasing the welfare of its people when the unparisitic and incapable Démocrate is hurried in disgrace from power in 1892.

The Congress of the Salvation Army now assembled in New York City is, in many respects, a unique gathering. It is like none of the representative religious assemblies with which the metropolitan is familiar. There is a directness of method, an intensity of purpose and a fervor about the work of the Salvation Army which impresses the reader with a sense of the power and the speed of action, intelligence and unprejudiced people. All the peculiarities of this organization, now of world wide extent, are faithfully reflected in the congress holding its session there.

Much may be said in criticism of the military paraphernalia, the cymbals, show banners and street parades of the Army. But when all is taken into consideration, the great fact remains that these methods, objectionable as they may seem to many, have been so applied and so inspired with the sincerity and courage of their advocates that a wonderful work for the benefit of humanity has been accomplished.

In England the Army has gone into the slums and made men and women out of wretched outcasts that the churches failed utterly to reach. It has become a vast reformative agency that has done more to solve the problem of Darker London than all other agencies combined. On the Continent and in many far off and semi-savage lands its intrepid soldiers have unflinchingly borne their standards in the face of persecution and danger. In the United States the work of reformation and regeneration of those who were social outlaws has been pursued with the same singleness of purpose.

For what they have done, for what they are doing and what they propose to do, the world owes the earnest workers of the Salvation Army a debt of gratitude.

The great strike at Homestead is at an end. It cost thirty-five lives, more than $1,500,000 in wages and fully as much more to the Carnegie Company. Was it worth the price? Has it made living easier, homes brighter or the cause of organized labor stronger? If not—somebody has blundered.

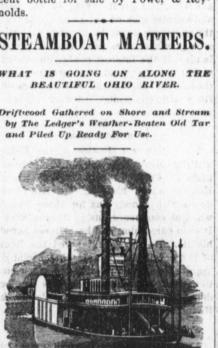

The Quickest Way to Cure a Cold.

Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. The first symptom of a cold is a dry, loud coughing and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a simple and effective medicine that will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in many cases will effectively counteract it and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days. Try it and be convinced. Fifty cent bottle for sale by Power & Reynolds.

A Boies Boomlet.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 25.—A conference of Democratic notables from all parts of the state is being held here to bind closer together. It is late, however, that Gov. Horace Boies has to urge him a good start in the race for the United States senatorship. That has been determined, and the next state convention will formally nominate Boies for that position.

HIGHWAYMEN.

Masked Men Take Possession of Lima, O.,

And Hold Up People on the Streets in Broad Daylight

The Police Start in Pursuit of the Gang and a Battle Takes Place.—The Robbers Escape and an Armed Posse Are Hunting Them in the Woods.

LIMA, O., Nov. 25.—A gang of desperadoes created a scene of terror in Lima, yesterday morning, by playing a trick on a police officer, and by having a shooting encounter with a posse who followed them. G. H. Anspach was on his way to work when he was held up near the Chenier and Erie railroad track. A man was directly in front of him, and when he turned to see who it was, he found him rubbing the cold steel against his neck to assure him that he was equally as well covered behind.

Anspach thought it was a party of friends out for a walk, and was about to speak when they all grabbed him and said: "Look out and we'll shoot you." At this he knocked the revolvers out of his face and at the same time brought his lantern down upon one of their heads with all his strength. The man with a fierce one and knocked his man to the ground and Anspach started and ran.

Several shots were fired at him, but none of them took effect. They all were wigs and fakirs, he said. They were a party of between ten and 15 years of age. As they went east along the track they met an old man by the name of Rorner, also a resident of Reece avenue, about 15 years away. They frightened the old fellow almost to death, and when the robbers threatened him with their revolvers he demanded his personal possessions. He refused to yield to their demands, when they overpowered him and, after choking him severely, rifled his pockets. He is in a serious condition from the shock. They held up another man—Frank Herold. They took off the valuable overcoat which he wore.

While one was looking after the overcoat the others were plucking a gold watch, also taking his pocket book. They then demanded his personal possessions. They refused to yield to their demands, when they overpowered him and, after choking him severely, rifled his pockets. He is in a serious condition from the shock. They held up another man—Frank Herold. They took off the valuable overcoat which he wore.

After an intermission of a few minutes four of the officers, with their weapons ready for use, followed in their wake, and were in the act of surrounding the house when six men rushed from the house and fled west along the railroad, closely pursued by the officers. The desperadoes were losing ground, and two and turned and fled west along the railroad.

After they pulled their weapons, they started out again, and the officers followed. They were heading west along the railroad, closely pursued by the officers. The desperadoes were losing ground, and two and turned and fled west along the railroad.

AMONG THE RAILROADS

THE STEEL HIGHWAYS THAT LEAD TO AND FROM MARYVILLE.

Items of the Rail That Are Stoked Up and Piled Into The Ledger's Columns by a Thoroughly Competent Engineer.

Out of a total railway mileage for the world, 370,381 miles, the United States has no less than 163,397 miles, or 44.18 per cent. of the whole; and the railway mileage of the United States exceeds by 2,400 miles that of any other nation in the world. Europe's 136,865 miles, Asia's 18,798 miles and Africa's 3,292 miles making an aggregate of but 159,655 miles. It is interesting to note the astonishing growth of the railway mileage of the United States from the census year of 1830, when there were less than forty miles of railroads, up to 1890. In 1840 the figures were 2,755, in 1850 they had risen to 8,571 miles, in 1860 the total had swelled to 38,919 miles, the census of 1870 showed the mileage to be 12,168 miles, that of 1880 placed the figures at 87,724 miles, while the eleventh census figures give the astonishing total of 163,397 miles.

In this connection we give the mileage of the world, by countries:
